

Contents

Notes on contributors	XII
Foreword
By Robin Cohen	XV
Introduction
By Nando Sigona, Alan Gamlen, Giulia Liberatore and Hélène Neveu Kringelbach	XVII
Metaphors, concepts, genealogies and images	1
Seeds, roots, rhizomes and epiphytes: botany and diaspora
By Robin Cohen	2
The loss and the link: a short history of the long-term word ‘diaspora’
By Stéphane Dufoix	8
Network
By Sondra L. Hausner	12
The sinews of empire in the world of modern warfare
By Vron Ware	14
Points of origin: a visual and narrative journey
By Alpha Abebe and Jyotsana Saha	19
Spheres of diaspora engagement
By Nicholas Van Hear	32

Belonging: imagining and remaking home 36

Cultures of translation: East London, diaspora space and an imagined cosmopolitan tradition

By Ben Gidley 37

Living with difference locally, comparing transnationally: conviviality in Catalonia à la Casamance

By Tilmann Heil 41

Making a Kurdistan identity in diaspora: Kurdish migrants in Sweden

By Barzoo Eliassi 45

African migrants at home in Britain: diasporas, belonging and identity

By Naluwembe Binaisa 50

Dimensions and dynamics of the Gambian diaspora in the digital age

By Sylvia Chant 54

Ambitious cultural polyglots: Kenyan Pentecostals in London

By Leslie Fesenmyer 66

Dreaming of the mountain, longing for the sea, living with floating roots: diasporic 'return' migration in post-Soviet Armenia

By Nanor Karageozian 69

Diaspora youth and British young men of colour

By Linda McDowell, Esther Rootham and Abby Hardgrove 74

Associational profusion and multiple belonging: diaspora Nepalis in the UK

By David N. Gellner 78

A diaspora-for-others: Hadramis in the world

By Iain Walker 83

Spaces, networks and practices 87

Creolization, diaspora and carnival: living with diversity in the past and present

By Olivia Sheringham 88

Malian traders in the Senegalese capital

By Gunvor Jónsson 92

The Indigent Moslems Burial Fund

By Nazneen Ahmed 96

Strangers and diasporas in Lusaka

By Oliver Bakewell 100

The 'diasporas' of Little Mogadishu

By Neil Carrier 104

Fitting in by being yourself: Avenues Unlimited and youth work in the East End c. 1960s–2000s

By Eve Colpus 108

Diasporic devotions and bodies in motion

By Alana Harris 112

Divergences and convergences between diaspora and home: the Somaliland diaspora in the UK

By Giulia Liberatore 116

Architectural associations: memory, modernity and the construction of community in East London

By Jane Garnett 122

Parallel lives and scattered families: European immigration rules and transnational family practices between Africa and Europe

By Hélène Neveu Kringelbach 131

Transnational school-based networks: diaspora, mobilities, and belonging By Mette Louise Berg	136
New ICT and mobility in Africa By Mirjam de Bruijn	140
Life in refuge: across Rwanda's camps and Uganda's settlements By Patrycja Stys	146
Roma, statelessness and Yugo-nostalgia By Nando Sigona	160
Governance and mobilisation: old and new actors	165
The rise of diaspora institutions By Alan Gamlen	166
The animators: how diasporas mobilise to contest authoritarian states By Alexander Betts and William Jones	172
Comparing and theorising state–diaspora relations By Alexandra Délano and Alan Gamlen	176
Disaggregating diasporas as actors By Carolin Fischer	180
From native informant to diasporic activist: the gendered politics of empire By Sunera Thobani	185
'Know your diaspora!': knowledge production and governing capacity in the context of Latvian diaspora politics By Dace Dzenovska	190
The stateless speak back: Palestinian narratives of home(land) By Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh	194

Diaspora as anti-politics: the case of Rwanda By William Jones	199
The Jewish diaspora and Israel: problems of a relationship since the Gaza wars By William Safran	202
Stalemate in the Armenian genocide debate: the role of identity in Turkish diasporic political engagement By Cameron Thibos	207
Shifting forms of diaspora engagement among the Sri Lankan Tamil diaspora By Nicholas Van Hear and Giulia Liberatore	211
Weapons of knowledge construction: the Afghan-American diaspora and counterinsurgency in Afghanistan By Morwari Zafar	217
Endnotes	222
References	225